

Community Partners and Alternative Destinations for Donation

Furniture

- Philadelphia Furniture Bank - Pathways to Housing: The Philadelphia Furniture Bank collects donations of gently used furniture and household furnishings, and provides them at little or no cost to families struggling financially to furnish their own homes. The Furniture Bank partners with other refugee resettlement agencies in the area.
 - Donation Guidelines: Please see the Furniture Bank's standards of excellence to ensure your donations fit their guidelines and are items that the recipient will feel proud of.
 - To Coordinate Your Donation: Fill out the Furniture Donation Inquiry form or email Furniture@PathwaystoHousingPA.org. However, drop-offs at the North Philadelphia warehouse are encouraged to minimize costs, but pick-ups can be arranged (submit form here). Donations are accepted from 9:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

- Habitat for Humanity ReStore Philadelphia
 - To Coordinate Your Donation: Complete the online form to schedule a free donation pick-up. You can also drop off your donation Tuesday through Saturday 10am to 3pm.
 - Donation Guidelines: Please see the website for a list of what items they accept
 - Questions? Call 215-739-9300 or restore@habitatphiladelphia.org with questions, but scheduling is made online and requires photos.

Thanks so much for thinking of HIAS PA. Please do not hesitate to reach out in the future! Although we cannot take all donations, here are some Philadelphia-based organizations with whom we have partnerships and where we encourage many of our clients to shop! Please note these organizations' standards of excellence and consider: would you be willing to give this item to a member of your extended family or a close friend? If the answer is no, then the item is not acceptable for donation.
