Position Type: Full OR part-time, 6-month contract

Salary: $50,000-$52,000

Application Deadline: Accepted on a rolling basis, with preference given to candidates who apply by 9/30/2022

General Description: The Immigrant Wellness Program (IWP) Case Manager provides direct case management support to refugees, asylees and other immigrants who are experiencing barriers to their self-sufficiency.

Core Areas of Responsibilities:

Follow and implement the guidelines as outlined in the Preferred Communities grant, providing individualized and group support to program participants and maintaining up to date documentation including case notes and program forms.

Primary Tasks:

- Work one-on-one with clients to identify primary barriers to self-sufficiency and create an individualized plan to address those barriers. Provide regular case management based on that plan.
 - Conduct the intake and enrollment of intensive case management (ICM) clients, as well as case closure at the end of services.
 - Maintain monthly contact with clients via phone, in-office appointments and/ or home visits.
 - Provide support to clients as needed to help them attain their goals. This might include conducting extended cultural orientation, advocating for clients with partner agencies, medical providers, schools, etc., providing accompaniment via public transit to off-site appointments, or other supports based on identified barriers and emergent needs.
 - Identify supportive community-services that clients can use as they move toward self-sufficiency.
- Ensure that programs are run in compliance with all federal, program, and agency guidelines.
 - Maintain complete, thorough and timely case noting and reporting on the designated database system, per program and agency requirements;
 - Complete Quarterly Progress Reports, and Case Closure Reports on Apricot;
 - Review closed case files and case notes, ensuring they are thorough and complete.

- Refer clients to community resources and partnerships to support the ongoing needs of the refugee communities being served.
 - Identify community-based services for refugees and asylees
 - Build collaborations with other refugee-serving agencies in the city to amplify client integration, community-building, and opportunities for success.
- Maintain availability to respond to emergencies. Some evening and weekend hours will be necessary from time to time.

Additional Organizational Requirements:

- Use in-person and telephonic interpretation whenever needed to communicate effectively with clients.
- Actively participate in supervision, weekly case meetings and other department, agency, community and provider meetings, as needed.
- Identify and attend regular conferences and training opportunities as relevant for the work.
- Other duties as assigned by Immigrant Wellness Program Manager

Qualifications:

- College degree required. Social work experience and/or education preferred.
- Experience working with vulnerable populations required. Experience working with vulnerable immigrant populations strongly preferred.
- Case management or similar experience required.
- Language skills beyond English extremely helpful, especially Arabic, Swahili, French, Pashto, Dari/Farsi, Urdu, Burmese, Ukrainian, and/or Russian.
- Highly organized and strong time management skills.
- Ability to exercise sound judgments in decision-making.
- Ability to identify challenges and provide recommendations for solutions.
- Compassionate and able to work with a diverse caseload and staff.
